XOOM Energy Relocates Its Corporate Headquarters

February 26, 2013 - (Charlotte, NC): XOOM Energy, LLC, a Charlotte-based energy company, announced this week it will be relocating its corporate headquarters to a larger facility in Huntersville, NC.

"Our decision to relocate to a larger facility is based on our tremendous growth during our first two years of operation," said Tom Ulry, XOOM Energy CEO. "This site represents a terrific opportunity for XOOM," explained Ulry. "The new building can more than accommodate our current employee base, allows for future growth and will enable us to develop a truly world-class corporate headquarters."

XOOM Energy will house all of its corporate functional teams in the building including, Finance, Operations, Energy Supply and Pricing, Marketing, Sales and Legal departments.

"Our new headquarters sets the stage for XOOM Energy's next leap forward," explained Ulry. "Our new building will offer the flexibility we need as we continue our aggressive growth into energy retail markets across the country."

XOOM will occupy 16,500 square feet of space on two floors in their new building. XOOM is scheduled to move March 4, 2013.
